

SCOOP IS NOT AS NERVOUS AS HE IS FINICKY

DUFFY IS TOO SWIFT FOR OGDEN

Great Falls, Aug. 17.—Ogden made its farewell appearance on the local diamond today and went down to defeat, the score being 7 to 1. Duffy on the firing line for the locals had the visitors at his mercy from start to finish, while the locals ran wild on the bases and made their hits count on Sinclair, who was on the mound for Ogden. By winning today's game the locals took the series by a count of four to two, and owing to the fact that Salt Lake was only able to get an even break in their double header with Missoula gained a few more points in the race for the pennant. Salt Lake now has a lead of only four games.

BASEBALL

Tigers 7, Senators 1. Detroit, Aug. 17.—Edgar Willett, twirling superbly, survived a brilliant pitcher's battle and Detroit, savagely attacking Engle when he weakened in the seventh, took the closing game of the series from Washington, 7 to 1. Willett, the first six innings, Engle granted two hits, while the latter allowed three. Each team could score only one run, although Detroit had men on bases in five of the innings.

A fielder's choice play, which gave Gandall a hit, enabled Foster to score Washington's only run in the fourth. Louder's single to center, bringing Bush home, tied the count in the inning. With one out in the seventh, Willett singled and Bush drew his fourth successive base on balls. McBride's error and Crawford's double produced two runs, and Engle was relieved by Hughes. The veteran deliberately passed Cobb and then walked Veach, forcing in a run. Galner hit to McBride, who nipped Crawford at the score board and Cobb, Veach and Galner scored.

With two out in the eighth and McBride on first, Shafer batted for Hughes and singled, but Willett averted possible trouble by retiring Moeller on strikes. Score: R. H. E. Washington 1 5 2 Detroit 7 1 0 Batteries—Gallia, Hughes, Engle and Alsmith and Henry, Willett and Sianage.

Yankees Defeat White Sox. Chicago, Aug. 17.—New York bade farewell to Chicago today for the season by winning the final game of the series by 3 to 2, after twelve hard fought innings. The error of Hartzell's ground, followed by a single by Beckinbaugh, gave the visitors the game. Naps and tuck with both teams, with the opposing pitchers giving a fine exhibition of nerve in the pinch. The locals had several opportunities to score but the wonderful fielding of the visitors' infield cut off Chicago's chances.

Manager Callahan's men made their first run when Williams made an error on Schalk's drive, and Weaver followed with a triple. Another run was scored when Chappell singled, took second on a passed ball, third on an infield out and scored on Chase's single. The Yankees tied it up on singles by Hartzell, Beckinbaugh and a double by Knight. R. H. E. New York 3 8 4 Chicago 2 10 2 Batteries—Keating and Sweeney; Benise and Schalk.

the second inning on Turner's double. Grant's out and on O'Neill's sacrifice fly. Another was scored in the third on Chapman's double, Jackson's out and a wild pitch. Four more were added in the seventh on Turner's single, O'Neill's double, Leibold's single, Chapman's triple and Jackson's single. The Athletics went scoreless until the ninth inning, when Collins doubled and scored on Walsh's single. Schang and Orr also singled, scoring Walsh. Score: R. H. E. Cleveland 6 11 0 Philadelphia 8 8 0 Batteries—Gregg and O'Neill; Wyckoff, Bender and Schang.

Browns 3, Red Sox 1. St. Louis, Aug. 17.—St. Louis played in championship form this afternoon and defeated Boston 3 to 1 in the visitors last game here this season. The Boston's fielding was wretched. St. Louis tallied first when McAlister was safe on Janvyn's error. He later was safe on Pratt's triple and a one-base drive by Williams counted another in the sixth. A single and another's triple in the eighth netted the last run for the home team. With men on the bases Baumgardner was effective in all but one inning, in which Boston scored its run on a single by Janvyn, a stolen base and Wagner's single. Score: R. H. E. Boston 1 10 3 St. Louis 3 8 0 Batteries—Anderson, Cady and Thomas; Baumgardner and McAlister.

PARKER EAGER TO MEET JORDAN

Archie Parker, who meets Chris Jordan, champion middleweight wrestler of the world, in a finish match at Salt Lake tomorrow evening for the championship title, put in a busy day yesterday. He did some work on the road in the morning and worked for nearly an hour on the mat in the afternoon.

Parker did not intend to do any mat work after his arrival here, but he said that he felt so good he just couldn't help taking a little workout at Salt Lake tomorrow evening for the championship title, put in a busy day yesterday. He did some work on the road in the morning and worked for nearly an hour on the mat in the afternoon.

Parker said he was familiar with Jordan's style of wearing a man out or letting the other fellow do the work, and then go in and finish him, and that he was prepared to meet him at his own game. "If Jordan wants a long-winded match I will give it to him," said Parker, "but if he wants to meet me half way and mix matters, he will find me there waiting for him. If he wants to get rough, well, I am pretty fair at that game, too."

Jordan is content to take things easy since his match with Harbertson, as he is in as good condition as it is possible to be, and there is no chance for him to improve, so he will simply take a little light road work to keep limbered up and let it go at that.

Jordan is as confident of throwing Parker
